

BY-LAW 1: DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

Approved by Council: September 24, 2009

1.1 In these by-laws, unless the context otherwise dictates,

“Administrator” in the context of a chiropractic educational institution means one who occupies an executive, management and/or policy-making position;

“Appointed Member” means a member of the Council appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council;

“By-laws” means by-laws made by the Council;

“CAC” means the Chiropractic Awareness Council;

“CCA” means the Canadian Chiropractic Association;

“CCEB” means the Canadian Chiropractic Examining Board;

“CCPA” means the Canadian Chiropractic Protective Association;

“Chiropractic Act” means the Chiropractic Act, 1991;

“CMCC” means the Canadian Memorial Chiropractic College;

“Code” means the Health Professions Procedural Code, Schedule 2 to the Regulated Health Professions Act, 1991;

“Council Member” means a member of the Council of the College

“CSCE” means the Canadian Society of Chiropractic Evaluators;

“College” means the College of Chiropractors of Ontario;

“Council” means the Council of the College;

“Elected Member” means a member of the Council elected by the members of the College;

“The Federation” mean the Canadian Federation of Chiropractic Regulatory and

Educational Accrediting Boards;

“Member” means a member of the College;

“OCA” means the Ontario Chiropractic Association;

“Non-Council Member” means a committee member who is not a member of Council;

“Prescribed” means prescribed in the regulations or by-laws;

“Primary practice” is the member’s practice address as identified in the College’s register;

“Primary residence” is the member’s residential address as identified in the College’s register;

“RHPA” means the Regulated Health Professions Act, 1991;

“UQTR” means Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières.

- 1.2 The definitions contained in the RHPA and Chiropractic Act are incorporated and adopted in the by-laws unless the context otherwise dictates.
- 1.3 Any act referred to by name shall mean that act in force at the relevant time as amended.
- 1.4 The by-laws shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Ontario.
- 1.5 In the event of an inconsistency between the by-laws and the RHPA, Chiropractic Act, or the regulations under those acts, the RHPA, the Chiropractic Act and the regulations under those acts shall govern.